

1878-1879: The first year of the project, focusing on the initial setup and data collection. The project was initiated by the Department of Education, and the first year was spent on identifying the key areas of focus and the data sources. The project was funded by the Department of Education, and the first year was spent on identifying the key areas of focus and the data sources.